

Damon Lamont Falls, 31 died suddenly July 5, 2010. He was born April 4, 1979 in Ponca City, Oklahoma. He attended Ponca City Public Schools. He later moved to Norman and attended Moore-Norman Tech where he received his certification in machining. After graduation he went to work for CMP Corp.

Damon enjoyed football and baseball. He was an avid K-State fan. Damon also enjoyed spending time with his family and friends.

He is survived by his mother, Avis Hunt, stepfather, Terry Banner, two brothers, Terrance and Quinton Banner all of Ponca City; his favorite Aunt Carla Hughes of Norman; his girlfriend Lakeisha Moore and son Chris of Norman. He also leaves behind to cherish his memory a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. He is preceded in death by his father, Ronald Falls; maternal grandparents, Sam and Eileen Roland; paternal grandparents, Hank and Ruby Falls.

Services will be held 2:00 P.M., Saturday, July 10, 2010 in the Havenbrook Funeral Home Chapel under the direction of Havenbrook Funeral Home. A private burial with family will follow the service.