

Lowery, Naomi "Joy", 77, passed away Friday, July 16, 2010 in Norman, Oklahoma. She was born January 1, 1933 to Orum O. and Edna E. (Canfield) Coles.

Naomi Joy was born and raised east of Norman and graduated from the Norman Public schools and attended college at OBU in Shawnee, OK. On July 7, 1957, Gordon and Naomi were united in marriage in Moore, OK at the home of their friend and pastor, Leon Wilson. They had just celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary. Naomi Joy retired from the United States Postal Service. She enjoyed Sunday mornings attending church at Maguire Baptist in Noble. She enjoyed gospel and country music, camping in her earlier years, working crossword puzzles, reading and cooking. Family was what Naomi Joy lived for and nothing would put a smile on her face quicker than a visit from a member of her family. Her family will miss the love that she had for each one of them and her good old fashioned home cooked meals.

She is survived by her husband, Gordon Lowery of the home; four daughters, Diane Clements and husband Don of Georgia, Patricia Cain and husband Mark of Chicago, Sherri Bramlett and husband Gayther of Georgia and Maureen Morris and husband Joe of Noble; six grandchildren, Shane Clements and wife Kristy of Georgia, Paul Clements and wife Ellie of Georgia, Brent Gallagher and wife Brittany of Dallas, TX, Desiree Gallagher of Houston, TX, Jenny George and husband Chris of Norman and Nick Morris and wife Nikki of Noble; four great grandchildren, Erik Clements, Cohen Gallagher, Clay Morris and Cail Morris; one sister, Lela Clinkenbeard of Whiting, Iowa; and many more family members and friends that she loved dearly. She is preceded in death by her parents; three brothers, Melvin Coles, Marvin Coles and Charles Coles; and one sister, Neva Bruesch.

Funeral services will be held 2:00 P.M., Tuesday, July 20, 2010 in the Chapel of Havenbrook Funeral Home with interment following in the Noble Cemetery under the direction of Havenbrook Funeral Home. Online memorials may be made to www.havenbrookfuneralhome.com
