

Patricia Ann Fuller

Patricia Ann Fuller, 74, of Norman, Oklahoma was taken home to her Lord on Sunday, May 24, 2009. She fought a short, but brave, battle with cancer.

Patsy was born in Dallas, Texas to Bill and Lena Ratcliff but spent most of her life in Norman. She attended the University of Oklahoma and was a member of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority. She was also a member of numerous local and civic organizations. Patsy will best be remembered through her work at the Band Box Cleaners, a local dry cleaning establishment she and her husband, Mark owned and operated together. She also founded the Snappy Fox, a ladies retail shop. She owned and operated the business until it was later sold. Throughout her life, Patsy enjoyed caring for her family, playing bridge, and dining out with her friends as part of several dinner clubs she was associated with.

Patsy is survived by her husband of 49 years, Marcus Willard Fuller; son, Mark Fuller and wife, Amy and their son, Jared; daughter, Teri Hoelscher and husband, James, all of Norman, and many friends.

Funeral Services will be held at 10:00 A.M., Thursday, May 28, 2009, at the Havenbrook Funeral Home Chapel in Norman. Interment will follow at Norman IOOF Cemetery in Norman. Services are under the direction of Havenbrook Funeral Home.
